Eligibility Currently, this rule states that the following are ineligible to compete in any speech contests: "District officers or candidates for elected District positions for the term beginning the upcoming July 1." Over the past few years, members have consistently raised questions about which District leader roles this rule applies to. To provide increased clarity, the wording for this rule is being updated to specify that "Candidates for District positions elected by the District Council for the term beginning the upcoming July 1" are ineligible to compete in any speech contest. This means that members cannot be a candidate for an elective officer position while actively competing in a current Toastmasters speech contest cycle. However, candidates for appointed positions are eligible to compete.
