

Toastmasters Accredited Speaker Program

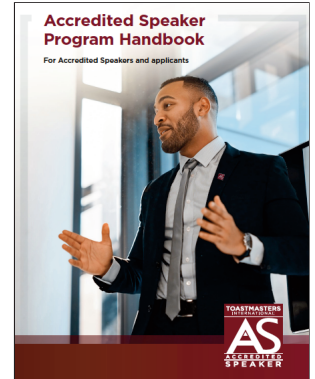

The Accredited Speaker program is reserved for Toastmasters who combine subject mastery with professional speaking skills. Being an Accredited Speaker gives you a competitive edge and sets you apart from other professional speakers.

Review the program rules in the Accredited Speaker Program Handbook to ensure you meet the criteria for two levels of judging, video and documents required.

<https://www.toastmasters.org/resources/accredited-speaker-program-handbook>

For more information, documents and details, visit

<https://www.toastmasters.org/membership/accredited-speaker/become-an-accredited-speaker>

- Presentations by Accredited Speakers -

How to Earn Toastmasters Accredited Speaker Designation

Sheryl Roush is joined by Accredited Speaker colleagues on these YouTube videos. They candidly share insights about earning the professional speaking designation, their journey, preparation and tips. Since the program's inception in 1981, as of 2022 only 90 members have earned the elite "AS" credential... from Australia, Canada, Kingdom of Bahrain, Malaysia, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

<https://bit.ly/AccreditedSpeakerVideo1>

<https://bit.ly/AccreditedSpeakerVideo2>

- Resources Approved by Toastmasters International -

How to Become An Accredited Speaker

2 audio files of 14 Accredited Speakers sharing their experience and insights to earning their professional designation.

Plus samples of their speaker marketing materials, and more!

Original 2015 audios - PDF files & recent items updated to August 1, 2023

Available as USB (in the US) or as electronic files online.

Available directly from Sheryl Roush

<https://bit.ly/AS-USB>

- Additional Education Videos for Toastmasters -

Watch additional videos specifically for Toastmasters on Sheryl's channel:

<https://bit.ly/SherylRoush-YouTube>