Judges Briefing:

Chief Judge should confirm you have received all Judge Certification of Eligibility and Code of Ethics Forms (Item 1170)

- As you know, your job is crucial to any good contest. As a judge you should be fair, accurate, knowledgeable, and a good listener. Make sure you do not have any distractions in your judging room. Avoid bias, and remember you are judging and not evaluating.
- Please read the 2024-2025 speech contest rule book.
- When each contest is complete, finish your tallying. When you are done, tear off or take a photo of the bottom portion of your ballot & give it to or send it to your assigned ballot counter. DO NOT include the actual scoring in the upper portion. Be sure one name is in the first, second, and third spot. Please sign your ballot now. You may discreetly discard the ballot after the contest.

The following are reasons why your ballot would not be counted:

- The ballot does not have your name & signature
- Multiple names on first, second, or third place
- Missing names in first, second, or third place (assuming we have at least 3 contestants)

Protests are limited to eligibility and originality and can only be lodged by the voting judges and contestants. Any protests should be lodged with the Chief Judge or the Contest Chair before the announcement of the winner. Once announced, the results are final.

Do not leave the contest until the winners are announced and the contest is adjourned. In case of a protest, all the judges will be called to a huddle meeting with the Chief Judge to discuss and vote on the protest.
